

The Craft of Creating is at your fingertips

Tá Ceard na Cruthaíochta ar do bhais agat

Travelling by car Ag Taisteal i gCarr

Kerry offers three craft trails, one in the north and east of the county, one in the south of the county and one to the west of the county. The trails are designed to offer you easy access to the best of Irish craft, and can be enjoyed whatever the weather! Why not make it part of your day-trip or take a few days out to enjoy all or part of Kerry Craft Trails? You will get the opportunity to watch the master craft producers at work, buy a hand-made piece to bring home and save money on the normal retail price. Makers of fine craft are inspiring to be with and happy to chat about their work, the creative process, and why they live in Kerry. All ages and interests will find something to enjoy here.

Plan your adventure, book a workshop with an original producer and stay longer. Book a guesthouse or hotel at www.discoverireland.ie/Places-To-Go/Kerry

Why not stay the night, eat out locally and enjoy what Kerry has to offer? Telephone in advance and let your chosen Kerry Craft Trails location know you are coming if you have any special requirements.

Kerry Craft Trails are an open-studio experience full of special memories that you will cherish for a long time.

Cleachtas stiúideo oscailte is ea Rianta Ceirde Chiarraí, iad lán de chuimhní speisialta a bheidh gar do do chroí go ceann i bhfad.

There are no entry fees to Kerry Craft Trail stops in 2011 or 2012.

We can assign you a Craft Trail Guide who will act as your tour guide as you drive across Kerry. Craft Trail Guides are knowledgeable about the places, the people and the processes behind craft making. The daily fee for a Craft Trail Guide is currently set at €135 for an English Language Guide, operating an eight-hour day from the first greeting point you choose. Advance payment for a Craft Trail Guide is required. Personal accident and public liability insurance on the Craft Trail Guide is covered by Original Kerry.
